What is the answer that we always want to make? Is it YES or NO? In life, there is only one answer. It is either yes or no. There is no stance in between. When we can, it is YES and when we cannot, it is NO. Because, we are so particular about our lifestyle from wearing a good shirt to having a good meal and leading a good life. But have we ever thought of having a stable identity, strong will and stern character?

What does it take to be strong in character? Having a strong character, we must be completely influenced with what is called identity. To stabilize his identity and to know what he is, Jesus himself asks his disciples what people tell of him. This gesture of Jesus strongly shows that he wants to develop his identity as someone strong and invincible even among the people. To be strong in our identity, we must know what others think of us and the image we create, must be authenticated by our acts.

Fashioning the right image among people is the best way to evolve our identity. We are what we are and must realise that we cannot be what others want us to be. At times, it is a real challenge to fashion our image among people and in order to fashion our image, we, at times, create an erroneous one of what we are actually not. We think about other's thoughts and forget to think on spiritual evolution of ourselves.

Eventually, to procure the right identity of our image, it is necessary to be true to ourselves that we must articulate what we feel not what we think because Jesus says that our answer must be either yes or no and not more than that. Just because others must feel comfortable, we should not say YES and because others have to be comforted, we should say NO in their absence. Here, we must realize that there is no answer between YES or NO. There is only yes or no. Practicing this, we levitate our identity to be strong, willed and invincible. So, it is this that makes us religiously strong and spiritually evolving.
