- 07 - MONTHLY RECOLLECTION

"Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, 'let us also go, that we may die with him.'"

John 11:16

Dear Brothers,

Prayerful greetings to you all in the sweet name of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

"MY LORD AND MY GOD"

The above said words of St.Thomas, the great Apostle of Jesus Christ who was also known as Didymus (Twin) invite all of us to surrender ourselves totally to the will of God and to deepen our faith in the Risen Lord irrespective of the troubles and disbeliefs that we encounter in our day today life. It is evidently true that the words of St. Thomas the great Apostle should become our Slogan or Mandra in order to bear witness to the Gospel through our life and mission.

As we fondly remember and celebrate the feast of St.Thomas in the month of July, we are also constantly reminded to imbibe the spirit of St. Thomas to confess the faith in the Risen Lord and to preach the same among the people of God.

"Let us also go, that we may die with Him" – the great Apostle spoke these words while Jesus was predicting His death. Are we not also called to pronounce the same? As missionaries in today's context, we are not only in a position to say but also to live and bear witness to Him, as the apostle did.

"Do not be unbelieving, but believe" was a command of our Lord Jesus not only to St. Thomas, it is for all of us too. Living by faith, trust and belief are not easy, yet they are the very foundation to be a disciple of Jesus. As we live in the age of science and technology, can we have the same trust and believe in the words of Jesus?

If we closely follow Jesus in our lives, we will have less fear, worries and anxieties. We can overcome problems, struggles and obstacles with the help of the word of God.

To touch the living God, we do not need to attend a 'Refresher Course' but enter in to the wounds of Jesus, and to do so all we need to do is go out in the street. Let us ask the special courage and grace from our Lord to do His mission in a way he wants to do it for His people.

Let us wish and appreciate all the Brothers who are celebrating their Birthdays and Feast days in this month.

May I also request you to remember all the brothers who had rested in the Lord in this month in your daily prayers.

JESUS & LEADERSHIP : A RUMINATION

In one of the most beautiful articles, a navy higher officer, reminiscing all the days of his becoming an officer says, "Leadership is not a skill. Leadership is a way of life." It assuredly explicates that Jesus's life was an embodiment of sublime leadership. What does leadership mean to Him, how He handled the role of leadership, given to Him, how He became the most successful as a son, sent by the Father, Almighty, as the God, whose sole work was to resuscitate humanity and how still He lives among us shall be the prime focus of this rumination.

My Beloved Son:

God has sent Jesus to save the world as we read in one of the parables. Jesus was born when the turbulence to kill all the babies was at high pace. Being the Lord, Jesus humbles himself to be baptized by John, the Baptist. Now, that is not the lesson here. When He was getting baptized, the heaven was opened and the Almighty recognizes Jesus as His most beloved son. We are always of the notion that when we are loved by someone, we can always overrule, bypass the hierarchy, subdue their wishes and relegate from what we are asked of. Sadly, that is not the case. Love liberates. Love makes us more responsible. Jesus, being the beloved, never allows himself to measure his love under the vernier of human desires. He stands firm in His love. Being loved never means being irresponsible by the person it is received. Leaders thrive on love. Jesus was the master in it. Jesus is the leader.

Food & Water:

Jesus loved to be with His disciples were the people. He laid his Jesus was focused, what His mission is, the earth. He firmly his food and water the work, allotted to his own mother and they must know He ministry, entrusted to have friends. We have his disciples always. around him. He healed hands upon them. But firm and relentless in what he was sent to tells his disciples that was to accomplish him. He even tells brother, stating that is taking care of the Him by the Father. We our personal works as well, yet, all those things must get us closer to our goals, our dreams and help us fulfill what God has called us for. That is why, Rumi says, "Seek those who fan your flame." Leaders prioritize never individualize.

Beyond Power:

George Orwell, a prolific British novelist, says, "Power corrupts – absolute power absolutely." There is one leader who is omniscient, omnipresent, omnipotent but never wields His power wantonly. He is the most popular counsellor, the best consoler, the supreme God. To the sinner, He says, "I also do not judge you." To the tax collector (considered as a sinner), Jesus says, "Come down, I want to dine with you." With the one who was dying with him, after his repentance, He says, "You will be in paradise today." He is Jesus. We all have power to certain extent but, as St. Augustine says, "Whatever we are, without God, we would not be." Best leaders never use their power but embrace everyone with love. Leaders are all embracing. Leaders love, never, degrade. Degradation degrades the leaders.

"Do what I do to you"

Leaders set benchmark, leaves an example, becomes an exemplary and are definitive model. Jesus never teaches anything which He never practices. He always practices before teaching anything. It is His prowess that even before His death, he instructs His disciples to do what He does – nothing more, nothing less but He desires from His disciples to outdo Him. How meek and simple! For all, who want to become a leader and seek an model, Jesus says, "I am the way and the truth and the life."
