"Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Mathew 11:29

Dear Brothers,

Prayerful greetings to you all in the sweet name of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The month of JUNE is always special for us, as the members of the institute of Brothers of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our Pope also invites us to pray to the Heart of Jesus during the month of June, So that we become the image of this Heart full of merciful love.

Devotion to the Heart of Jesus was born and developed in the church well before in the 16th century and before the revelations to saint Margaret Mary in the 17th Century.

In one of his address, Pope Francis added; Draw from the Heart of Jesus the spiritual food and drink for your life so that, nourished by Christ, you are new persons, transformed in depth by this divine Love. The two most known invocations of the Heart of Jesus are...

- Jesus, meek and humble of heart, may my heart like unto thine; and
- Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you

as the members of the Institute of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, one of our traditional practices of ejaculatory prayers are the above two and that made our brothers to draw the spiritual energy to bear witness to His call. Let us also follow this in the footsteps of our ancestors and get the same spiritual vigor for our life and mission.

The Month of JUNE also marks the beginning of new academic year. Education is one of our main apostolate by which we share the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus with the poor and needy. Though we have a legacy in this ministry, in today's context our focus must be in shaping the young minds to build citizens for the future. Let our institutions be the places of human making and not be the centers of machinery making which functions on programs. All our educational institutions should become the places of human making and inculcating basic human values among the students through a well-defined curriculum of our own beyond the printed textbooks.

I also gently remind all the heads of the institutions to admit our target group and give priority to the poor, needy and the downtrodden children. Kindly, see to that our institutions continue to be the places of Hope and Trust for the people. My special wishes and prayers for the very success of the new academic year.

Let us wish and appreciate all the Brothers who are celebrating their Birthdays and Feast days in this month.

May I also request you to remember all the brothers who had rested in the Lord in this month in your daily prayers.

FEAST OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The devotion to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is one of the most widely practiced and well known Roman Catholic devotions, taking the heart of the resurrected Body as the representation of the love by Jesus Christ, which is 'his heart, pierced on the cross'; and 'in the texts of the New Testament is revealed as God's boundless and passionate love for mankind.

Contemplating the Heart of Christ, we are faced with the fundamental question of our religious life: Where is my heart directed? It is a question that we religious must ask ourselves many times, everyday and every week. Our ministry is often full of plans, projects and activities. Amid all these, we must still ask ourselves: What is my heart set on? Where is it directed? Jesus says, "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" Mathew 6:21. There are weaknesses in all of us, but let us go deeper to the roots: Where is the root of our weaknesses, that is to say what precisely is that 'treasure' that distances us from the Lord.

The great riches of the Heart of Jesus are two; the Father and ourselves. His days were divided between the prayer to the Father and encountering people. So too, the heart of Christ's religious knows only two directions: The Lord and his people. The heart of the religious is a heart pierced by the love of the Lord. For this reason, he no longer looks to himself, but is turned towards God and his brothers and sisters. It is no longer a fluttering heart allured by momentary whims, shunning disagreements and seeking petty satisfactions. Rather, it is a heart rooted family in the Lord, warmed by the Holy Spirit, open and available to our brothers and sisters.

Dear Brothers, by celebrating the feast of our patron, let us rediscover each day our identity as his fellow brethrens. May be truly make our own the words of Jesus; "This is my Body, which is given up for you". This is the meaning of our life, with these words, in a real way we can daily renew our promises that we have made at the time of our profession.

WISHING YOU ALL HAPPY FEAST.

CONTEMPLATION ON THE DIFFERENCE OF OPINIONS

Opinions differ. They vary from person to person. Has everyone's opinions been same and similar, the place, we live, must have become heaven. American psychologist, Scott Peck, beautifully states that having different opinions is healthy. Yet, there lies a great difficulty to accept the opinions which are good and decline which are not suggestible because we never accept the opinions that are actually good and ready to welcome suggestions that affect the healthy relationship. That is where, humans differ. We always tend to forget that we 'are the image of God.' From the Biblical perspective to whom and what opinions we need to get from have to be introspected, delineated and practiced.

REREADING THE 'FEEDING FIVE THOUSAND'

This miracle of Jesus is so special. This is the only miracle, captured by every Gospel writer. Why this miracle is special? What Jesus, the greatest teacher, tries to convey us? Is it about food? Is it about His preaching? What makes this miracle so special? It makes us feel awe with His enormous heart which exudes love for the people who had come all the way to him. He feels sympathetic with them and so He wants to serve them with food. That is alright, absolutely fine. But, this is the understanding of a common man.

This is a miracle through which Jesus tries to teach something to His disciples. The miracle of feeding five thousand has been lucidly written by John in John 6: 1-15. We read Jesus initiating the discussion of feeding the five thousand with Philip, telling him, "Where are we to buy bread for this people?" He is now testing Philip's readiness to do things and what Philip tells is something practically reactionary. Philip says, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." Maybe, Philip here fails the test of generosity. As it is a formation time of all the disciples, he wants to know who is who. Remember, at the sight of God, everyone is being formed. It is not an end-to-end process, but a continuous process. Andrew now sees a boy carrying five loaves and two fish but he also resists believing miracles will happen because of his opinions. Jesus lets them sit down, blesses the food, serves all of them and the boy gets the benefit of carrying five baskets of loaves back home and the fish is of course the remuneration for the little boy's generosity.

Jesus exemplifies that differences of opinions do not work miracle, he teaches us that differences may vary. Jesus's opinion is complete belief, Himalayan faith, absolute submission to the will of the Father, the Most High and active action into the task. We have to reflect what our opinions are. We have to understand and adjust them to the people around us who are blessed by God as superiors.

OPINIONS AS LIFE-CHANGING TACTICS

We have to absolutely accept that it is our own opinions which affect the health in the relationship and infect our wellbeing. Pope Francis calls it spiritual Alzheimer. Alzheimer starts slowly but affects our body in seven stages. In the final stage, we become completely disoriented, totally forgetful and worse is that we start behaving backward in age. Hope nobody desires such spiritual degradation. Opinions have such bad effect. We must aspire opinions from our superiors who lead us and most importantly, we must reckon God's blessings in everything we do. One question can always change our complete behavior, attitude and elevate our spirituality, the question is: Will God love what I do, who I am, how I feel? Certainly, God leads us in ways mysterious when our opinions are godly.
