IMPORTANT DAYS / EVENTS NOVEMBER

- 01 ALL SAINTS DAY
- 02 ALL SOULS DAY
- 03 MONTHLY RECOLLECTION

"Give your burdens to the Lord, and He will take care of you.
He will not permit the godly to slip and fall". Pslm 55:22

Dear Brothers,

Prayerful greetings to you all in the sweet name of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Every year we begin the month of November with two important festivals, namely ALL SAINTS DAY and ALL SOULS DAY and throughout this month, we are specially invited by our mother church to offer special masses and prayers for all the departed souls of our near and dear ones.

The saints are not perfect models, but people through whom God has passed. We can compare them to the church windows, which allow light to enter in different shades of colour. The saints are our brothers and sisters who have welcomed the light of God in their hearts and have passed it on to the world, each according to his or her own "hue." However, they were all transparent, that fought to remove the stains and the darkness of sin, so as to enable the gentle light of God to pass through. This is the life's purpose; to enable God's light to pass through; it is the purpose of our life too.

Thanks to these unknown brothers and sisters who help God and who live among us; Let us salute them all and seek their incessant prayers to submit ourselves totally to the will of God and thus to establish the Kingdom of God on the earth.

It has been a long tradition from time immemorial to visit the cemeteries on the All Souls Day to offer special prayers for the departed souls. A plenary indulgence can be associated with the visit. A day of memory, a special day to remember those who walked before us, accompanied us, and gave us life. It is also "a day of hope", a hope of "what awaits us; a new heaven, a new earth, the holy city of the new Jerusalem". We also feel that this hope helps, because we too, have to make this journey. All of us will make this journey. All of us will make this journey – sooner or later, but everyone.

Let us keep in our minds this dual memory; the memory of the past, of those who have gone, and the memory of the future, the path on which we will go with the hope of rising again as our Lord Saviour himself confirms with his following words: "I will raise him up on the last day".

Let us wish and appreciate all the Brothers who are celebrating their Birthdays and Feast days in this month.

May I also request you to remember all the brothers who had rested in the Lord in this month in your daily prayers.

The Value of Dignity

Whom should we treat with dignity? Is there any limit and eligibility to run the dignity show? Dignity is not the subject on how you treat others, it is the subject of how you see yourself. It is a pretty beautiful business. Does the Bible teach us about dignity? What is the opinions of Jesus and His holy disciples about dignity will be the main observation in this article. Dignity holds two spectrum of meaning, it is how others see you and more importantly, how you see yourself.

Jesus's Life of Dignity!

In Jesus's life, dignity has a lot of spectrum. Let us examine one by one. Jesus, though born in the manger, invites the kings to pay him the respect. Jesus right from his birth is so dignified. To treat ourselves with dignity has in itself a lot of power. Dignity is to do what is allotted to you. To be precise, to do what you have to do. How does this reflect in Jesus's life? It just reflects glaringly obvious. Jesus was lost in the church when he was too young. He was eventually found. When the parents inquired about his whereabouts, the young Jesus sternly replied if they were not aware that he had to involve himself with the work, allotted to Him, the work of bringing souls to God.

Personal dignity is something which everyone must recognise. Jesus was recognised as such by John the Baptist. Baptist wonderfully acclaims that he is not worthy even to undo Jesus's sandals. Here, the spectrum of dignity is twofold. You treat others with dignity, your life becomes dignified.

With the life of Jesus Christ, we necessarily learn that rejection is the source of enhancing dignity. Because, through Christ, it is proved that the stone, rejected, has become the corner stone and founded so deeply that everyone born upon the face of the earth reveres. Jesus himself teaches us in John 13:16, "Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him." Obliging to the master is another form of dignity which Christ asks us to have. Saying to yes to the master when you are compelled to say no is where Christ resides.

The Other Teachings on Dignity in the Bible!

Apart from the Gospels, portraying Jesus's life and times, Paul leaves us the true mark of Christian way of dignity in human life. Equality is dignity. Paul insists in Galatians 3:28, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus." Jesus as the corner stone, we are all just equal. Having the mindset of equality is the greater form of dignity. Christ has it and He compels us to follow the same. Where everyone is treated equally, is the place, everyone is dignified.

John in one of his letters profoundly explains what is dignity by meeting someone's needs. He says in 1 John 3:17, "But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him?" Depriving someone of their rights is to deprive them of their dignity. Meeting their needs, you keep up your dignity and increase the dignity of the same person in need.

Treating someone fairly is what dignity does. We must always remember that we have the Master in Heaven. As Paul rightly says, "Masters, treat your slaves justly and fairly, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven."

Lastly, the best form of dignity is to treat yourself so well even when others are not with us. Because, Paul urges us to treat ourselves so holy as we are 'the temple of living God.' Dignity is the right way of living Christ's way.

Prayer for all Souls Day

Merciful Father,
hear our prayer and console us.
As we renew
our faith in your Son,
whom You raised from the dead,
strengthen our hope
that all our departed brothers and sisters will share in His resurrection, who lives and reigns
with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
