"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."

(Romans 15:13)

Dear Brothers,
Prayerful Greetings to you all in the sweet and most precious name of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus!

FOLLOW YOUR HEART. Our culture is driven by this concept, which today often entails doing what is right for you, fulfilling all your desires, and hustling to make it happen. Pursuing your dreams and finding fulfilment are worthwhile endeavours, but have you ever found your heart divided about someone or something? Or desired and pursued something that wasn't good for you? I have. Those stories didn't end well.

Beyond its vital physiological functions, we attribute love, wisdom, and compassion with the heart. Sacred Scripture also ascribes spiritual functions to this complex organ. The 1,000+ Scripture passages about the heart tie it to the core of our being, our identity. One of the most jarring yet candid Scriptures on the human heart is:

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately corrupt; who can understand it? "I the Lord search the mind and try the heart, to give every man according to his ways according to the fruit of his doings." JEREMIAH 17:9-10

Somehow 'follow your deceitful, desperately corrupt, incomprehensible, tested-by-God vessel' doesn't seem quite as catchy. The good news is that Our Father knows this about our hearts and sent His Son to show us how to navigate our path through this life. We need Christ to be our compass. To follow His heart. And Christ's fundamental teaching, love, flowed from that centre of His being.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus symbolizes the infinite love of God. It is the burning, wounded heart of Christ that reveals the Trinity's self-sacrificing, consuming love for us. This love endured incomprehensible sufferings unto to death, over which it triumphed. Devotion to the Sacred Heart is devotion to Christ. Honouring His Heart is paying reverence to Christ in the way that He has chosen to reveal Himself to us. The Scriptures reveal much about the love and heart of Christ, but devotion to the Sacred Heart popularized after 1673-1675 when Jesus appeared to a young French nun, Margaret Mary Alacoque. In a series of revelations as she prayed before the Blessed Sacrament, Christ revealed that He had chosen her to spread this devotion. She wrote, "He disclosed to me the marvels of his Love and the inexplicable secrets of His Sacred Heart." During His third apparition to Margaret Mary, He opened His robe, exposed His human Heart, and said:

"Behold this heart which has so loved men that it has spared nothing, even to exhausting and consuming itself, in order to testify its love. In return, I receive from the greater part only ingratitude, by their irreverence and sacrileges, and by the coldness and contempt they have for me in this sacrament of love..... I come in to the heart I have given you in order that through your fervour you may atone for the offenses which I have received from lukewarm and slothful hearts that dishonour me in the Blessed Sacrament".

Centuries later, despite our rejection, irreverence, and apathy, the wounded Heart of Christ still pours His love out such that He withholds nothing from us. It is in this Heart that we find all that we need.

The "Heart of Jesus," is a significant religious symbol in Christianity. It represents Jesus's divine and human love, and is often depicted with a burning flame, symbolizing his passion and mercy. Here's a more detailed look at the symbol and its significance:

Love and Mercy: The Sacred Heart is a powerful representation of Jesus's love for humanity, encompassing his compassion, tenderness, and willingness to sacrifice for the world.

Divine and Human Love: It symbolizes both Jesus's divine love for the Father and his human love for all people.

Interior Life of Jesus: The Sacred Heart represents Jesus's inner life, his willingness to lay down his life for humanity and his gentle, lowly nature.

Wound: The heart is often depicted with a wound, symbolizing the spear wound received on the cross, representing his suffering and the salvation he offered.

Crown of Thorns: The heart is often depicted encircled by the crown of thorns, representing the suffering endured by Jesus.

Flame: Flames are frequently seen emerging from the heart, signifying the intensity of his love and the power of his passion.

Dear Brothers. Let us love one another as the Lord himself loved us immeasurably and unconditionally. By loving and sacrificing for one another let us adorn and glorify the Divine Heart that broke and shed blood to redeem us. In this month dedicated to the Sacred Heart let every word and deed of ours reflect and radiate the unquenchable flame of Jesus' Love for humanity.

Let us wish and appreciate all the Brothers who are celebrating their Birthdays and Feast days in this month.

May I also request you to remember in your daily prayers all the Brothers who had rested in the Lord in this month.

Wish you all Happy Feast of the most Sacred Heart of Jesus

Prayer to Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, Filled with infinite Love, broken by our ingratitude and pierced by our sins, yet loving us still, accept the Consecration we make to Thee, of all that we are and all that we have. Take every faculty of our souls and bodies, only day by day draw us, nearer and nearer to Thy Sacred Heart, and there, as we shall hear the lesson, teach us Thy Holy Way.

Amen.
